

Terrence HIGHT, JR. MBA

SOCIAL ENTREPRENEUR DEDICATED TO ELEVATING HEALTH AND WEALTH

BIOGRAPHY

Terrence Hight, Jr., is the Founder and CEO of The Hight Effect and Hight Health. Both organizations provide solutions that address social determinants of health (SDOH) in underserved communities. For over a decade, Terrence has worked in the healthcare industry, leading projects for organizations such as Optum360, Dignity Health System, Northwell Health, and WellStar Health System. Through The Hight Effect, Terrence has helped establish over 500 startup companies, trained over 1,000 minority entrepreneurs, and assisted entrepreneurs in securing over 1.5 million dollars in funding.

Terrence holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from Georgia State University and an Executive MBA from Kennesaw State University's globally ranked EMBA program. In his spare time, Terrence enjoys mentoring new entrepreneurs, playing the saxophone, and spending time with his wife and four sons.

FEATURED IN

NOTABLE SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS:

- 2022 Urban League of Greater Atlanta and Truist Bank Pitch Bootcamp Instructor
- 2022 Urban League of Greater Atlanta and Mastercard Small Business Program Instructor
- 2021 AARP Urban League of Greater Atlanta Pitch Keynote Speaker
- 2021 Chase for Business Digital Marketing Event Speaker
- 2021 Urban League of Greater Atlanta/SBDC Cares Entrepreneur Featured.
- 2021 Georgia Department of Public Health - Symposium Speaker
- 2021 National Medical Association Region V Conference Panelist
- 2021 Tanzania Classic Media International Business Summit Keynote Speaker
- 2021 Rolling Out Magazine's Health IQ Feature
- 2020 Atlanta Black 40 Under 40 Recipient
- 2020 Atlanta Medical Association Business of Medicine Seminar Host

SOCIAL MEDIA:

pr@hight.health

(404) 788-4429

@terrencehightjr